RESPONSIVE READING

Mark 12:1-12

Leader: He began to speak to them in parables: “A man planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug out a pit for a winepress, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to tenant farmers and went away.

Congregation: 2 At harvest time he sent a servant to the farmers to collect some of the fruit of the vineyard from them.

Leader: 3 But they took him, beat him, and sent him away empty-handed.

Congregation: 4 Again he sent another servant to them, and they hit him on the head and treated him shamefully.

Leader: 5 Then he sent another, and they killed that one. He also sent many others; some they beat, and others they killed.

Congregation: 6 He still had one to send, a beloved son. Finally he sent him to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’

Leader: 7 But those tenant farmers said to one another, ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’ 8 So they seized him, killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.

Congregation: 9 What then will the owner , of the vineyard do? He will come and kill the farmers and give the vineyard to others.

Leader: 10 Haven’t you read this Scripture: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. 11 This came about from the Lord and is wonderful in our eyes?”

All: 12 They were looking for a way to arrest him but feared the crowd because they knew he had spoken this parable against them. So they left him and went away.
